

THIS IS NOT A BILL. THIS STATEMENT IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY.

If you filed bankruptcy, this notice is not an attempt to collect a debt, but instead allows the creditor to enforce its lien. If you were an obligor on this account prior to the filing of a bankruptcy and either Iowa Bankers Mortgage Corporation ("IBMC") has received an order granting relief from the automatic stay or you have received a discharge or surrendered the home in full satisfaction of the debt, IBMC is exercising only its rights under the security agreement as allowed by law. IBMC is not attempting to collect or recover the debt as your personal liability, but is only complying with statutory notice requirements. If the amount requested is not received by the stated date, IBMC may exercise its right to enforce its lien.

Legal Rights and Protections Under the SCRA

Servicemembers on “active duty” or “active service,” or a spouse or dependent of such a servicemember may be entitled to certain legal protections and debt relief pursuant to the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (50 USC §§ 3901-4043) (SCRA).

Who May Be Entitled to Legal Protections Under the SCRA?

- Regular members of the U.S. Armed Forces (Army, Navy, Air Force Marine Corps and Coast Guard).
- Reserve and National Guard personnel who have been activated and are on Federal active duty
- National Guard personnel under a call or order to active duty for more than 30 consecutive days under section 502(f) of title 32, United States Code, for purposes of responding to a national emergency declared by the President and supported by Federal funds
- Active service members of the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.
- Certain United States citizens serving with the armed forces of a nation with which the United States is allied in the prosecution of a war or military action.

What Legal Protections Are Servicemembers Entitled To Under the SCRA?

- The SCRA states that a debt incurred by a servicemember, or servicemember and spouse jointly, prior to entering military service shall not bear interest at a rate above 6 % during the period of military service and one year thereafter, in the case of an obligation or liability consisting of a mortgage, trust deed, or other security in the nature of a mortgage, or during the period of military service in the case of any other obligation or liability.
- The SCRA states that in a legal action to enforce a debt against real estate that is filed during, or within one year after the servicemember’s military service, a court may stop the proceedings for a period of time, or adjust the debt. In addition, the sale, foreclosure, or seizure of real estate shall not be valid if it occurs during or within one year after the servicemember’s military service unless the creditor has obtained a valid court order approving the sale, foreclosure, or seizure of the real estate.
- The SCRA contains many other protections besides those applicable to home loans.

How Does A Servicemember or Dependent Request Relief Under the SCRA?

- In order to request relief under the SCRA from loans with interest rates above 6% a servicemember or spouse must provide a written request to the lender, together with a copy of the servicemember’s military orders. [Note: Lender should place its name, address, and contact information here.]
- There is no requirement under the SCRA, however, for a servicemember to provide a written notice or a copy of a servicemember’s military orders to the lender in connection with a foreclosure or other debt enforcement action against real estate. Under these circumstances, lenders should inquire about the military status of a person by searching the Department of Defense’s Defense Manpower Data Center’s website, contacting the servicemember, and examining their files for indicia of military service. Although there is no requirement for servicemembers to alert the lender of their military status in these situations, it still is a good idea for the servicemember to do so.

How Does a Servicemember or Dependent Obtain Information About the SCRA?

- Servicemembers and dependents with questions about the SCRA should contact their unit’s Judge Advocate, or their installation’s Legal Assistance Officer. A military legal assistance office locator for all branches of the Armed Forces is available at <http://legalassistance.law.af.mil/content/locator.php>
- “Military OneSource” is the U. S. Department of Defense’s information resource. Important Information re:
Legal Rights and Protections under the SCRA effective Jan. 1, 2016

The provisions of the Foreclosure Relief and Extension for Servicemembers Act of 2014, which extended the timeframe for which servicemembers are protected from foreclosure proceedings from 90 days to one year after the end of military service, expired December 31, 2015. While HUD has not updated this notice, it is important to note that as of January 1, 2016 the foreclosure protection timeframe referenced in the second bullet point under the heading "What Legal Protections Are Servicemembers Entitled To Under the SCRA?" reverts back to 90 days after the end of the servicemember's military service, (not one year), as originally provided in the SCRA.
